Fourth Grade Syllabus

Welcome to fourth grade! I am so excited to be a part of the WOCS staff. I am looking forward to having your child in my class. In this document I have outlined our classroom policies and procedures as well as some important dates to remember. I am looking forward to a wonderful year and can't wait to see what God has in store for us here at WOCS.

Classroom Management Students are expected to obey and exhibit appropriate behavior in the classroom. We, as a class, have discussed classroom rules and expectations. There will be rewards and there will also be consequences.

I will be using Group Me to communicate with each of you, there will also be information that you will need to know in your Tuesday Folder.

The students will have occasional homework if they don't complete all their work in class. They will always have spelling words and a weekly Bible memory verse to study at home.

I have a small classroom library where the students are allowed to check out books. They are also welcome to bring a book from home to read. I will take an inventory of my classroom library at the end of the year, if a book is not returned you will be asked to replace it.

We will take one field trip each nine weeks, information about those field trips will come to you through GroupMe and also through class notes.

We will have three class parties throughout the year. A Christmas/Jesus' birthday party, a Valentines/God's love party, and an Easter/Resurrection party. You will be given the opportunity to sign up for one or more of these parties at our first parent/teacher conference.

Birthday Parties Each student will receive a special birthday blessing during chapel, also on this day you are welcome to bring a classroom treat for the class. (Cupcakes, brownies etc...) If your child has a summer birthday we can work out a time for that.

On the cover page of this syllabus you will find the Bible verse that our class has chosen as our class verse, your child will be expected to recite this from memory.

Please note that the above information is subject to change. If changes are needed, I will let you know through a note.
